OHIO ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE PROUDLY PRESENTS:

First Line Supervisors' Training

February 28-March 3, 2022 (Monday-Thursday)

Genoa Twp. Police Department, 6921 Big Walnut Road, Galena

(In-Person only)

For registration and directions visit https://oacp.org/training-schedule/

TARGET AUDIENCE: Recently promoted first line supervisors (including corporals and sergeants), Officers-in-Charge, or officers in line for promotion to a supervisory rank.

Presenters: The four-day course is taught by experienced Chiefs with expertise in their areas of instruction.

- Transitioning to the Role of a First Line Supervisor
- Supervisory Challenges for 21st Century Policing (& Ethics)
- Effective Communication Skills for First Line Supervisors
- Motivation and Discipline Issues
- Managing Problem Employees and the Police Culture
- Legal Issues and Updates-Civil Liabilities, including; Supervisory Liability, lawsuits, failure to train, sovereign immunity; Marijuana - update and enforcement
- Use of force - legal trends, policy, qualified immunity
- Effective Leadership principles
- Decision Making and Problem Solving

Note: Training is limited to 40 participants, so register early!

ITEMS TO NOTE:

- Registration begins at 8:30 am on Monday, February 28. The Monday session starts at 9:00 am. The remaining days sessions begin at 8 am. All sessions conclude at 5 pm each day.

REGISTRATION:

$249 Members

$299 Non-Members

Note: Dress is business casual

Fee includes: presentation and materials. All meals are on your own. Lodging is on your own, and available at a local hotel at a group discount rate.

Email or Fax Registration form to:

Renea Collins, Program Coordinator
OACP Education
renea.collins@oacp.org
614-761-0330 phone
614-761-9509 fax