Citizen Police Academy

Through the Loveland Citizens Police Academy, adults go behind the scenes with LPD through 10 weeks of hands-on learning.

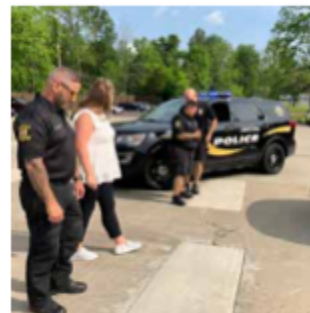

Students Resource Officers

Loveland Police Department provides four full- time student resource officers for grades 1-12. The SROs work from each Loveland City School building and St. Columban School.

Buckle Up Campaign

Loveland Police Department participated in the Quick Click Challenge. This is an annual awareness campaign to help promote Click It or Ticket, a national effort to enforce seatbelt laws.

Junior Police Academy

In collaboration with Goshen and Miami Townships, Loveland Police Department hosted its week-long summer daycamp. Teens learned about fingerprinting, use of force, traffic stops and firearm training, plus took part in a K9 demo.

National Night Out

Loveland Police Department partnered with Hamilton Township to host a National Night Out event in August. Lt. Szpak led a taser demo, and the K9 team showed off their skills, too. There was a police vs. kids water balloon toss, bounce houses, and tons of fun.
