Mason Community Profile

The City of Mason is considered one of the most desirable communities in the Cincinnati metropolitan area and has earned a reputation as a progressive, innovative community. The city is a destination for corporations seeking a thriving business environment and for families desiring attractive neighborhoods and nationally ranked schools. It is located in the southwest portion of Ohio, 22 miles northeast of Cincinnati and 30 miles south of Dayton.

Originally settled as the village of Palmyra in 1815 by Major William Mason, the community was renamed in his honor 20 years later. Incorporated in 1971, Mason is now one of Ohio's fastest growing cities and has over 35,000 residents. Its 19+ square miles are about 85% developed with a mix of businesses, commercial areas, and attractive residential neighborhoods with a wide range of housing types. A comprehensive planning process for the development of the city has helped preserve its small-town feel even as it has evolved into a modern city with attractive amenities.

Mason is strategically located between the Cincinnati region's two most vital commerce corridors, Interstates 71 and 75, just north of the I-275 beltway. Businesses and residents have easy access to the metropolitan centers of Cincinnati and Dayton.

For air travelers, the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport in northern Kentucky is about forty-five minutes away. Major regional and commuter airlines provide non-stop or direct service to cities in the United States, Canada, and Europe. Dayton Airport in Ohio is also about forty-five minutes away, and Port Columbus, Ohio, is about 90 minutes away. Private airports in Cincinnati (Lunken Field) and Warren County are nearby.

Almost all of the City is served by the Mason City School District, which has earned a perfect score and an "Excellent/Effective" rating on the state report card each year since 2000. It serves approximately 10,000 students. The City also has two private schools that educate about 1,000 students in grades one through eight. Higher education opportunities are available locally at Sinclair Community College in Mason and Miami University's regional campus in West Chester. Main campuses within commuting distance are the University of Cincinnati, Miami University of Ohio, and smaller, private colleges.

Almost all of the day-to-day needs of families can be found right in the City, from grocery stores to professional offices. Four regional shopping centers are within a 20-minute drive.

Residents of the City of Mason have many recreational opportunities available at their doorstep. Two public golf courses, Great Wolf Lodge, the Mason Municipal Aquatic Center and Kings Island amusement park all lie within City boundaries. The city is also home to the annual Cincinnati Open, a championship men's and women's tennis tournament. Eight City parks cover over 300 acres and include fishing lakes, walking trails, ball fields, tennis courts, picnic shelters, and playgrounds. Mason Community Center is one of the largest public recreation facilities in the state. It has a competition pool, leisure pool, gymnasium, field house, fitness area, walking track, senior center, café, and classroom and meeting areas. A continually expanding network of bike paths connects neighborhoods to schools, parks, and downtown.

Growth and development in Mason is expected to continue to meet or exceed the average growth of the economy because of Mason's physical location, developable terrain, municipal facilities, services and utilities, and the progressive attitude and actions of City Council, administration, and citizens.

Government in the City of Mason

Mason has a council/manager form of government. City Council hires the city manager, who is charged with administering the operations of city government and implementing policies enacted by Council. The City's charter establishes guidelines for its operations.

The legislative body of Mason consists of a mayor and six council members who are elected at-large on a nonpartisan basis to serve 4-year terms of office, with a limit of two consecutive terms. The mayor is a council member elected by his or her fellow council members and serves as the executive head of council. The council also selects the vice mayor, who performs the duties of the mayor in his or her absence.

The council/manager form of local government combines the strong political leadership of elected officials in the form of council, with the strong managerial experience of an appointed city manager. The mayor and council members are the leaders and policy makers elected to represent the community and to concentrate on policy issues that are responsive to citizens' needs and wishes. The city manager provides policy assistance and ensures that the entire community is being served.

The city manager carries out Council policies as he or she manages the day-to-day operations of the city with support from the city manager's immediate staff, including the assistant city manager, human resources director, economic development staff, public information officer, information technology manager, and department heads. He or she has full authority over the appointment and removal of all municipal personnel.

Department heads are responsible solely to the city manager for carrying out the mission and responsibilities of their departments. Department heads include a finance director, service director, city engineer, parks and recreation director, public utilities director, service center director, safety director, police chief, and fire chief. The department heads, together, with the immediate administrative team, make up the city manager's leadership team.

Police Department

The City of Mason is served by a full-service, fully-accredited municipal police agency. The department has a Chief of Police, Assistant Chiefs, Lieutenants, Sergeants, and Officers including Campus Safety, K9, D.A.R.E., Traffic, Detectives, Warren County Tactical Response Unit, Cyber Fraud Task Force with the U.S. Secret Service, and the Southern Ohio Digitized Organized Crime Group Task Force with the FBI, The United States Marshals Service's Southern Ohio Fugitive Apprehension Strike Team (SOFAST). The department operates five community policing patrol districts.

AGENCY BACKGROUND

The City of Mason police department is an experienced department both in the profession and within the city. Officer employment with the city ranges from one year to over 25 years. The department maintains an in-service training program for all personnel, including a tuition reimbursement program.

COMMUNITY PATROL DISTRICTS AND COMMITMENT

Local police are supported, in large measure, because citizens prefer policing that is responsive to local desires for service and the opportunity to base policing priorities on citizen needs. To this end, the City of Mason Police Department is a community-oriented policing agency. Citizens are asked to take a more active role in the solution of problems. In exchange, the community policing officers are free to work with people on developing immediate, as well as long-term, solutions for community concerns in ways that encourage mutual accountability and respect. Community policing broadens the City of Mason police role to make a greater impact on facilitating changes today that hold the promise of making the community safer and more attractive tomorrow. Community policing officers respond to calls for service, make arrests, and write traffic citations, but they also go beyond this narrow focus to develop and monitor broad-based, long-term initiatives that can involve all elements of the community in efforts to improve the overall quality of life. As the community's ombudsman, the community-policing officer acts as a link to other public and private agencies that can help in any given situation. Officers are assigned to each of the five patrol districts. They spend time focusing on problems identified by the residents and businesses in each district, and they facilitate resolutions to these problems.

ACCREDITATION

The City of Mason Police Department is an internationally accredited police agency. Approximately 500 law enforcement agencies have achieved this distinction worldwide. The Mason Police Department is voluntarily measuring up to a body of standards representing the highest professional levels. Accreditation standards address six major areas: 1) law enforcement roles, responsibilities, and relationships with other agencies; 2) organization, management, and administration; 3) personnel administration; 4) law enforcement operations; 5) prisoner and court-related services; 6) auxiliary and technical services.

The City of Mason Police provided proofs of compliance with over 189 standards. Compliance is verified by independent, credible, outside observers. The police department has been recognized as an internationally accredited agency since 1997.

City Mission Statement
