

Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police

An Introduction to the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police

You are invited to become a part of the law enforcement association representing police executives and the police profession in Ohio. Established in 1928, the Association is a fully staffed organization offering you a broad range of professional, educational, and informational services. Our goals are: 1) to serve you the member; 2) to increase our public's understanding of the role police play in maintaining our quality of community life; and 3) to foster improvements in police education, practice, and research.

OACP Membership Benefits
