

OHIO ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE PROUDLY PRESENTS:

The Emotionally Healthy Leader in High-Responsibility Environments

With Gary Fowler

November 5, 2026 (Thursday) 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Genoa Twp. (Delaware) PD and via Livestream

For registration and directions visit <https://oacp.org/training-schedule/>

TARGET AUDIENCE: This workshop is designed for Chiefs and senior command staff.

Presenter:

Gary Fowler, M.S., is a leadership educator, executive leadership consultant, and Business Psychology graduate whose work focuses on developing emotionally intelligent leaders and strengthening organizational performance in high-consequence environments.

“Today’s leaders are expected to make sound decisions, navigate change, manage conflict, and lead people through increasingly complex challenges. This interactive six-hour workshop equips participants with practical tools to strengthen emotional intelligence, improve communication, build trust, and lead with greater clarity, resilience, and confidence.

The workshop also explores the often-overlooked impact of cumulative stress, grief, trauma, and emotional fatigue on leadership effectiveness. Through engaging discussion, real-world application, and practical strategies, participants will learn how emotionally healthy leaders create stronger relationships, healthier team cultures, and more resilient organizations. Emotional intelligence is not a soft skill. It is a foundational leadership competency for thriving in today’s high-responsibility environments.”

Participants will:

- learn practical leadership frameworks they can immediately apply to improve individual and team performance.
- learn how emotionally healthy leaders create stronger relationships, healthier team cultures, and more resilient organizations.
- Acquire practical tools to strengthen emotional intelligence.
